Stay where it all started amidst grand architecture and lush grounds as an unforgettable backdrop. The Boca Raton Cloister features 261 guest rooms and suites. Located in the heart of Harborside, the hotel is just steps from the Golf Club, Racquet Club and Spa Palmera. In December 2021, Cloister reopened following a comprehensive restoration. As when famed architect Addison Mizner designed the property for its original opening in 1926, Cloister's exterior once again gleams in coastal white. The grand entrance was extensively renovated, including every detail along the main drive and throughout the lobby.

This year, Cloister has introduced exciting new dining and retail experiences. Guests of Cloister have access to The Boca Raton's many amenities, including a private golden beach, and an array of activities and extraordinary programming. Located within The Boca Raton's private gated club, guests can choose from dining experiences at a collection of 14 restaurants and bars.
